

BIOGRAPHY – KEITH DUNCAN

Keith is the Group Chief Executive Officer of the JMMB Group and has responsibility for the overall performance and charting the strategic direction of the JMMB Group. He joined JMMB as Trading Manager in 1993, and in 2000 became the Deputy Managing Director, before being promoted to his current role as CEO. A true visionary and strategist, he has built one of the strongest trading teams in Jamaica. His financial expertise has not only benefited the JMMB Group, but also the Jamaican financial sector. A former president of the Jamaica Securities Dealers' Association, he partnered with the Financial Services Commission (FSC) in designing and implementing new structures and models to enhance the effectiveness of Jamaica's market players. Under his leadership, JMMB was conferred with the prestigious Jamaica Chamber of Commerce 'Best of the Chamber Award' in the 'Large' category, in 2011. As a further testament of Duncan's leadership, Jamaica Money Market Brokers (JMMB) received the Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Business Leadership at the American Foundation for the University of The West Indies (AFUWI) during its 23rd Annual Legacy Awards Gala in February 2020.

Keith is also the current president of the Private Sector Organization of Jamaica (PSOJ), having previously served as a vice-president of that organization, from 2012 to 2014 and continues to contribute his service to Jamaica through various roles including being co-chair of the Economic Programme and Oversight Committee (EPOC). Known for his commitment to youth development, Keith served as chairman of the National Youth Service from 2003 to 2009 and worked closely with the respective boards and teams to fulfil the mission of transforming Jamaica's youth to become purposeful citizens. He is also a founding member of the YUTE Programme in Jamaica (Youth Upliftment through Employment). For his contribution in the areas of: finance, business, youth empowerment and community development, Keith was among 46 outstanding Jamaicans, who were recognized with the second highest honour, Order of Distinction in the rank of Commander (CD), in 2020. Duncan was also named the 2015/16 Ambassador of Financial Wellness for the Environmental Health Foundation. Additionally, Keith has served on numerous boards including: National Youth Service (NYS) and Youth Upliftment Through Employment (YUTE) and national committees.

He is a Chartered Financial Analyst and holds a B.A. (Economics) from the University of Western Ontario in Canada.
