AFJ Launches 2021-2022 Grant Cycle

New York, NY, October 4, 2021- The American Friends of Jamaica (AFJ) is pleased to announce the 2021-2022 Grant Application Cycle. We invite applications from programs registered with the Jamaica Charities Act that are doing work to improve communities in Jamaica.

In 2020, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the AFJ did not announce a grant cycle. Through our dedicated supporters and donors, the AFJ has forged forward in its work and is excited to support impactful initiatives through the upcoming Grant Cycle. Much of our recent efforts have focused on COVID-19 relief. The world has seen hard times due to the pandemic.

AFJ grants support programs in Education, Healthcare, and Economic Development. Early childhood, primary, secondary and tertiary education are aligned with our mission. In healthcare, valid medical related programs are invited as well as human service organizations and programs for the youth and elderly.

The deadline for applications is February 4, 2022. Applications are evaluated and notifications are sent in March in preparation for our Grant Awards Ceremony to commemorate the awardees in April. The AFJ grant cycle is an annual application cycle.
